

Core Programs

These are the programs that define your organization(s) and require the major portion of your group's dedication

Proposed Programs

These are the programs that your organization(s) currently have planned, but have not executed or are existing programs currently on hold

Outside Programs

These are programs you feel would be beneficial to the collaborative, but are currently being run or planned by organizations not directly involved with the steering committee and/or planning committee

